This art book contains spoilers. We recommend you read it after your first playthrough.

Neptune N

“Justice is totally on our side!”

The main character who conveniently lost her memory. She has the ability to transform during battles to fight with great strength. She's usually energetic and optimistic. She tends to drag others into her problems without realizing it.

N Purple Heart

“Someone told me...
I'm the only one who can save the world.”

Her personality changes completely when she transforms. She becomes more calm and observant, but can still be pretty oblivious.

Vert

“...Your optimistic outlook hasn’t changed, even after losing your memory.”

The goddess presiding over Leanbox. Her quiet and feminine personality makes her popular amongst her people, but it is rare for her to appear publicly. She loves games to the point where it affects her ability as a goddess. Games, anime, and manga are her Three Sacred Treasures. She owns most game consoles and their peripherals.

Green Heart

“I will make you understand...!”

A mysterious person who appears in front of the party while at Leanbox. Her appearance resembles the transformed Neptune. Her soft speech and laid-back attitude also resembles someone else. Not a fan of violence, she hardly ever initiates battles... but she does see Neptune as her nemesis.

Noire

"I swore to myself I was done with the human world."

She's hardworking and polite; some call her the ideal goddess. On the other hand, she can try too hard, making her own efforts a waste. She cares a lot about what others think of her and seems to harbor many secrets about herself. She's also an aspiring voice actress. She enjoys cosplaying and brainstorming transformation call-outs in her free time. She's even bought herself a red electric guitar because of an anime she watched.

Black Heart

"I will teach you discipline."

A mysterious person who appears in front of the party while at Lastation. Her appearance resembles the transformed Neptune. She's competitive, tough, and aggressive towards Neptune. She holds a strong grudge and the party fights her multiple times.

Blanc

“...The outsiders can stay out of this. Neptune’s all I need.”

The goddess presiding over Lowee. She doesn’t appear very often because she’s shy, but she’s still a reliable goddess who gets her job done. She tends to bottle up all her emotions which consequently leads to explosive outages at times. Her hobby is writing novels, but she can’t seem to hook people into purchasing them for some odd reason. Her goal is to receive the Amateur Writer’s Prize.

White Heart

“Neptune, be honored. You’ve chosen to signal the beginning of the end of the Console War.”

A mysterious person who appears in front of the party while at Lowee. Her appearance resembles the transformed Neptune. She’s quiet and inexpressive. It’s often difficult to understand what she’s really thinking. Though, her hatred towards Neptune is obvious.

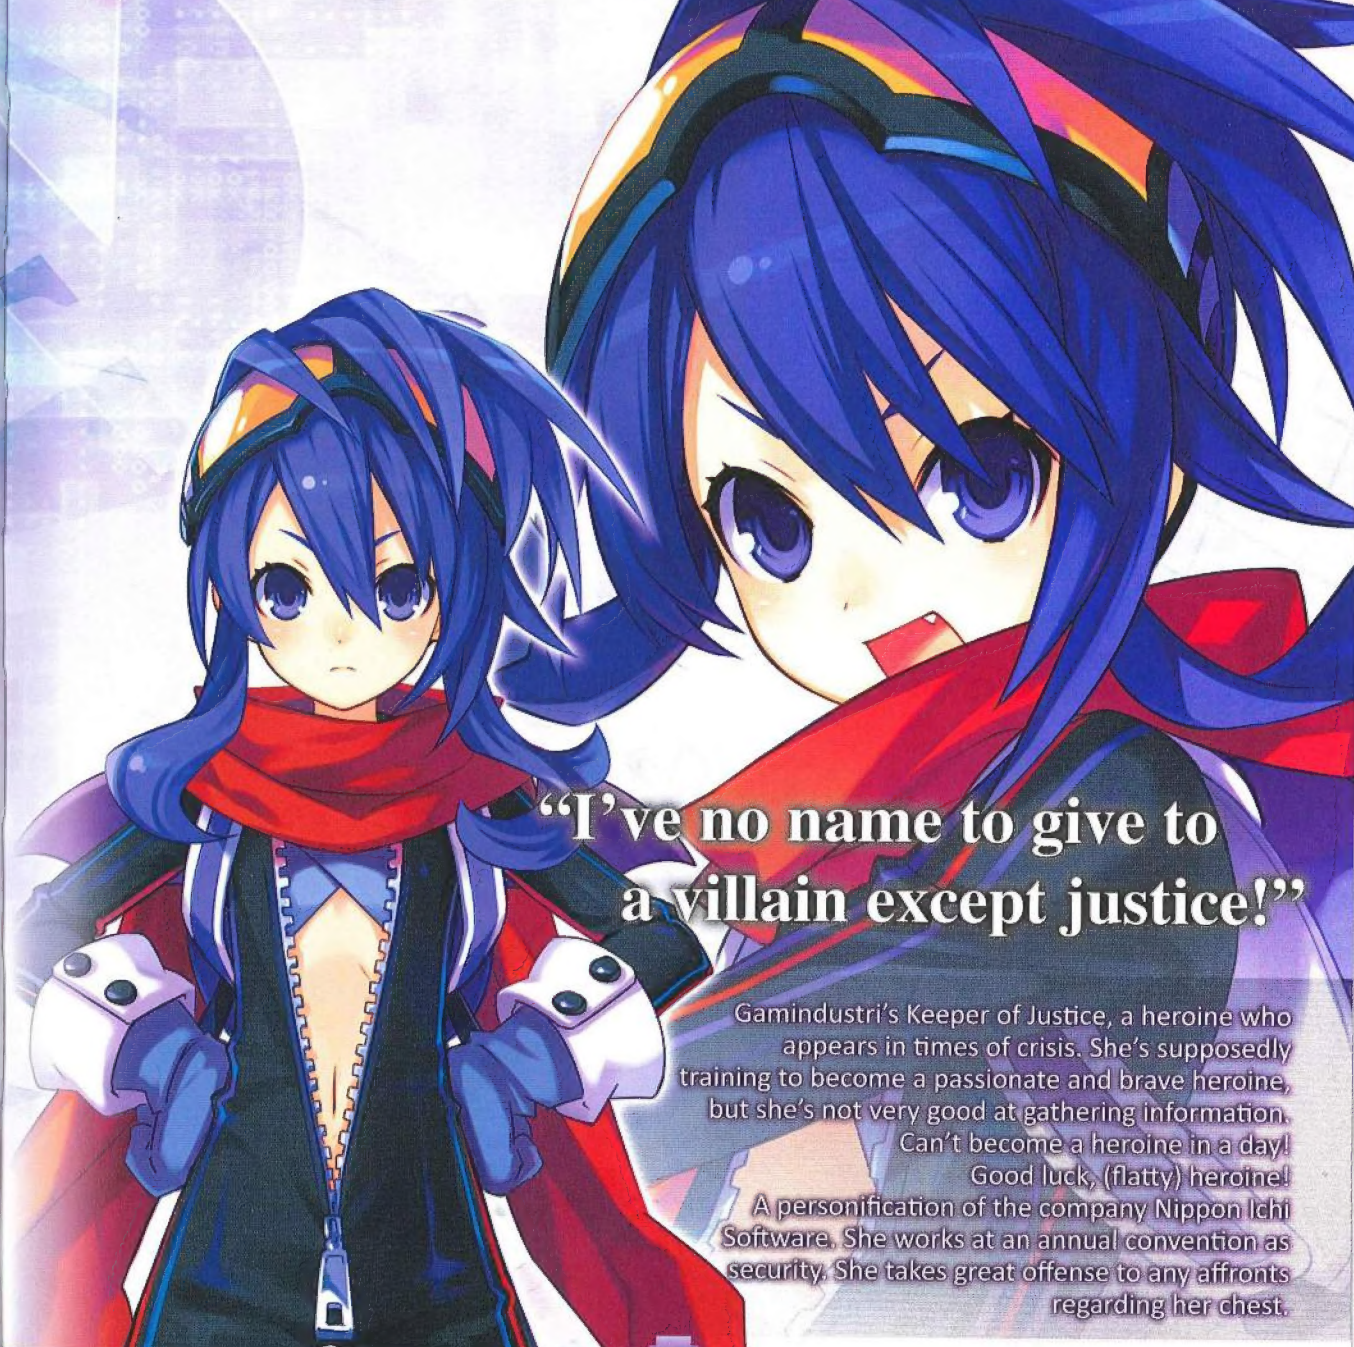

Gust

“This is all as planned.”

A girl who travels the world while selling the items she crafts. She seems fragile and makes you want to give her a warm hug. She's very strict with money. Her goal is to enrich people's lives with the items she invents. A personification of the company Gust. Money is her true love, and making more is her primary interest. She has a special skill where she can count change from just their sound. She invented the wireless cellphone charger.

Nisa

“I’ve no name to give to a villain except justice!”

Gamindustri's Keeper of Justice, a heroine who appears in times of crisis. She's supposedly training to become a passionate and brave heroine, but she's not very good at gathering information. Can't become a heroine in a day! Good luck, (flatty) heroine! A personification of the company Nippon Ichi Software. She works at an annual convention as security. She takes great offense to any affronts regarding her chest.

IF

“Don’t call me Iffy.
That’s not my name.”

A member of the Guild who travels around the world. Through her travels, she’s gained a wide range of knowledge and is usually very calm. On the other hand, since she’s been traveling alone for so long, she can be a bit selfish and hard-headed. She ends up agreeing to help Neptune and Compa save the world.

 Compa

“The three of us are as one.
We’re a party!”

A nurse-in-training whose desire is to save troubled people. She becomes Neptune’s ally to help save the world. She’s quite oblivious to her surroundings but has a dependable side as well. Neptune and she always get along since they seem to be on the same wavelength. She claims her hobbies include arts and crafts, and she is apparently good at math.

Arfoire/Histoire

“No need to be upset.
I’ll come back,
time and time again.”

She has a distinct laugh and aggressive demeanor.
She is dressed in all black, much like a witch.
For some reason, she follows Neptune around and attacks whenever the mood strikes her.

“I am the world’s everything
and it is my everything.”

Owner of the mysterious voice crying for Neptune’s help.
Her existence is shrouded in many layers of mystery.
She is pretty easy-going and one of the few able to put up with Neptune.

Neptune: Detailed Settings

The birth of the mysterious CPU, Neptune!

Neptune Console Specs

➤ Operation System

Conversational Operations: A.I. Model Neptune

It provides various complex support functions via an autonomous A.I. Even a simple auditory command will cause it to automatically configure advanced network settings.

The longer you and the machine work together and communicate, the more it will adapt to your preferences and carry out your requests with minimal error.

* A.I. Model Neptune was made to emulate a real human as accurately as possible. It is always energetic and optimistic, but this configuration may be difficult to control at times. Please maintain patience with it.

Processor

The Sixth Generation Multi-BIOS Chip (512.16THz~)

Features multiple split-core processors and circuitry setups mimicking the precise functions of human DNA.

* Please be careful of the following:

- (1) Do not try to raise the clock frequency with supplemental overclocking drugs.
- (2) The more software gets activated, the better the circuitry will acclimate. There is a possibility some redundant tasks may stop being processed even if they were upon initial boot.

+ Memory

8TB x 16

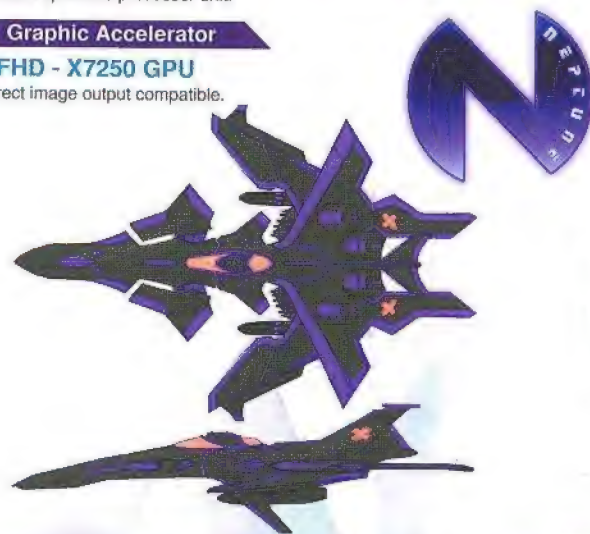

Processor Memory: The Sixth Generation Neuron Memory (120gn)

* There are 1,200,000,000 nervous memory functions embedded in each split-core processor unit.

Graphic Accelerator

SFHD - X7250 GPU

Direct image output compatible.

+ Storage

8PB x 4

There are four independent drives which constantly back one another up for minimal data loss and frequent disk defragmenting. A total of thirty-two petabytes of storage space is available.

+ Media Drive

Embedded with Quad PRD (Purple-Ray Disc) Drive

Plays 4D games, audio, and movies, with the ability to simultaneously record them. You can play multi-disc games without replacing discs.

Battery

Features Self Auto-Recharging Unit (50-Year Warranty)

* You can use the extra power remaining during Stand-by Mode and apply it to your household appliances.

+ Output

With the Play Controller, it's able to output information such as movies and music databases, and tickle you.

+ Includes

Play Controller x1, Power Cable x1

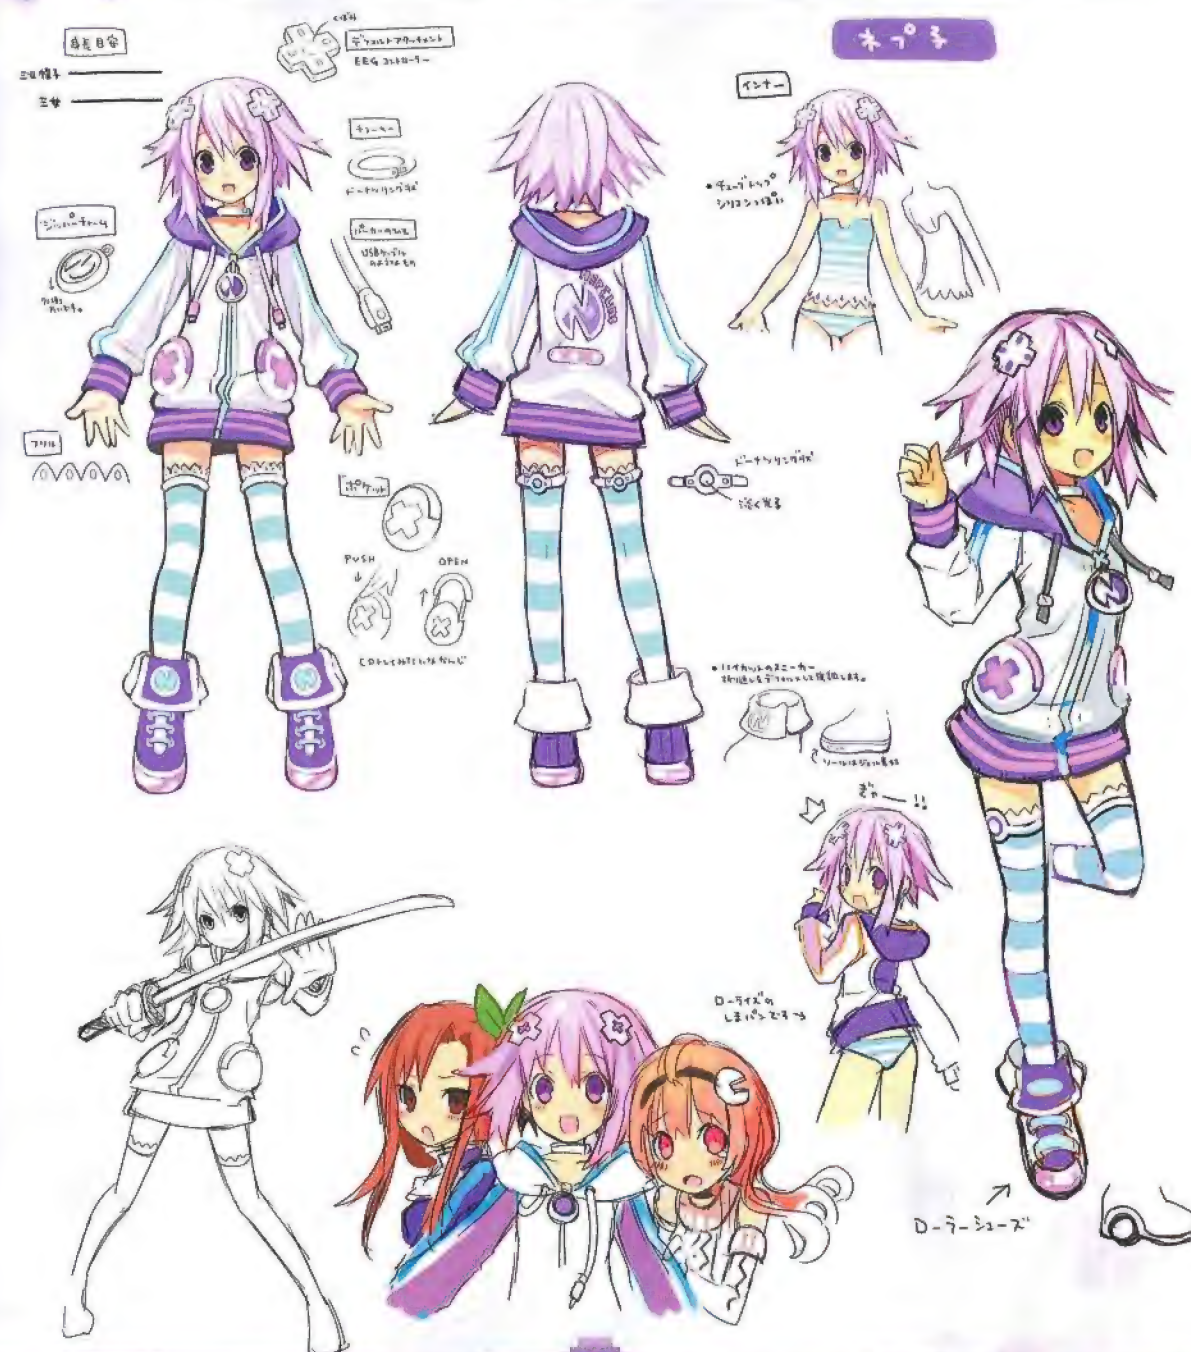

+ Does Not Include

Power Cable (Multi-Tap)

Histy, what does "Magquone" mean?

Magestic, consomme, noodles.

Really?

Ditis Factory / What's that again?

Oh, it's... Ummm... / Ugh, ignorance. It's a...

Conversation Belt!

Crap, I messed up... / Yep, that's it! Nice, Iffy! / As expected! They don't mind.

Didn't Fit in the Concept of Moe

This world sucks. I'm gonna run away and be a rebel / Arfie, 16

I need a make-over... Be dark... / Hm, not bad...

This make-up isn't right... Ouch, thorns...! Ugh!

Think of it that way and it makes ya like her. / What's the point?
